RUMI FOUNDER & ILLUSTRATOR

A marketer by chance, an academic by accident and an entrepreneur by passion, RUMI's (she/her/hers) adventure began out of her love for the arts and culture and all things sustainable.

As a self-confessed artist, RUMI has a unique way of combining the arts and cultures with vibrant colours and creating effervescent prints which makes each of her pieces exclusive and distinctive. The RUMI LONDON designs facilitate creativity and style. Having grown up in Bhutan, a place that continues to remain close to her heart, RUMI now resides in London, UK, where she creates her designs. It is no wonder that the RUMI LONDON collection reflects many influences from Britain, Bhutan and Bharat (her ethnic connection), transforming classic motifs and heritage patterns into contemporary designs, thus forging the uniqueness of RUMI LONDON.
